Chapter 230: Divine Convoys

Sung Jin-Woo, ever the strategist and master of cosmic order, sent forth four divine convoys to various realms and universes, ensuring his reach expanded beyond the bounds of the Absolute Realm and deep into the farthest corners of the multiverse.

---

1. The Convoy to the Abyss

The first divine convoy was dispatched to the Abyss, a realm known for its treacherous, war-torn expanses. The convoy was composed of:

Divine Warship: A colossal vessel brimming with divine power, capable of withstanding the harshest of environments.

1000 Space-Planes: Highly advanced, maneuverable craft designed for tactical strikes and rapid deployment.

3 Cruiser Spaceships: Large and heavily fortified, these cruisers served as the backbone of the convoy, providing both offense and defense.

2 Destroyer Spaceships: Armed with devastating firepower, these destroyers were ready to neutralize any opposition.

10 Space-Frigates: Agile and versatile, the frigates provided support and reconnaissance for the larger ships.

This convoy’s mission was to establish Sung Jin-Woo’s influence and protect the divine interests within the Abyss, which was home to chaotic and hostile forces.

---

2. The Convoy to Earth’s Cosmos

The second divine convoy was sent to Earth's cosmos, ensuring that Sung Jin-Woo’s dominion was felt across his original realm. It consisted of the same powerful fleet:

Divine Warship: The flagship of the convoy, exuding the might of a god.

1000 Space-Planes: Swarming the heavens of Earth, ready to provide air superiority.

3 Cruiser Spaceships: Protecting Earth from any external threats and reinforcing the planet's security.

2 Destroyer Spaceships: Ready to engage in direct conflict with any hostile forces that dared approach.

10 Space-Frigates: Conducting reconnaissance and securing the outer edges of Earth’s atmosphere.

This convoy’s purpose was to maintain peace and order, as well as fortify the planet's defenses against any external threats while spreading Sung Jin-Woo’s divine influence over his home world.

---

3. The Convoy to Shadowverse

Next, Sung Jin-Woo sent a third divine convoy to the Shadowverse, the domain of the Shadowkins. This realm, ruled by his will, was a vital point of control in the multiverse.

Divine Warship: A majestic vessel that symbolized Sung Jin-Woo’s presence in the Shadowverse.

1000 Space-Planes: Efficient and deadly, ready to swarm across the Shadowverse skies.

3 Cruiser Spaceships: Heavily armored and well-equipped for any confrontation with rival powers.

2 Destroyer Spaceships: Armed to the teeth, these ships ensured the Shadowverse remained undisturbed by outside threats.

10 Space-Frigates: Serving as scouts and messengers, the frigates ensured the fleet stayed ahead of any challenges.

This convoy’s mission was to uphold Sung Jin-Woo’s control over the Shadowkins, ensure the dominance of his forces in this realm, and stabilize the political and military landscape within the Shadowverse.

---

4. The Convoy to Draconis Lux

Finally, the fourth divine convoy was dispatched to Draconis Lux, the home of the Dragonkins. This realm was vital to Sung Jin-Woo's broader plans, and the divine convoy served to further solidify his rule over this powerful race.

Divine Warship: The central command ship, radiating divine energy, symbolized Sung Jin-Woo’s authority over the Dragonkin.

1000 Space-Planes: Their presence ensured that the skies of Draconis Lux were under Sung Jin-Woo’s control.

3 Cruiser Spaceships: These ships protected Draconis Lux from any external invasion and served as the mainline defense force.

2 Destroyer Spaceships: These formidable ships were there to crush any forces that threatened Draconis Lux's peace.

10 Space-Frigates: Providing support in reconnaissance and intelligence gathering, the frigates ensured the full cooperation of the realm’s resources.

The mission of this convoy was to secure the Dragonkin’s loyalty and reinforce Sung Jin-Woo’s power over the Draconis Lux system.

---

5. Unifying the Divine Convoys

Each convoy was meticulously equipped to handle the unique challenges of their respective realms, but all shared a common purpose: to extend and solidify Sung Jin-Woo’s dominion across the multiverse. Through his divine warships and their accompanying fleets, Sung Jin-Woo was sending a clear message to all corners of existence: his reign was absolute, his influence boundless, and his power unchallenged.

The divine convoys moved like a synchronized dance, uniting the realms of Earth, the Abyss, the Shadowverse, and Draconis Lux under the banner of their Creator. As these fleets sailed through space, guided by the will of Sung Jin-Woo, the multiverse trembled in anticipation of the next phase of his divine conquest.